

Hello! I am a white Unicorn!

I thought I knew my name, but after doing some research and thinking, I'm not so sure what you should call me. But of course, a rose by any other name would sound just as sweet, right?

What do you think my name should be? I'm always curious — but curiosity killed the cat, so I have to be very careful! There are MANY cats in the universe, but it seems like there are so few Unicorns left. What happened? Did the cats eat all of us?

I hear that Unicorn meat is delicious — even better than BACON — and I LOVE eating bacon! It must be what keeps me looking and feeling so magical!

If you need me, I'll be here in my magical garden that my creators have made for me.

Have a lovely day, and if you do the right thing, I hope to see you in the future!
